Seventh Annual Orcutt Fa La La Award Winners

Sponsored by Wine Stone Inn, Vivid Financial, Cups and Crumbs, Orcutt 76, State Farm, Core Winery, and Orcutt Garden Center

Come on ring those bells: Christmas is here, and Orcutt is glowing with cheer. Santa will have no problem finding his way to Orcutt homes this Christmas, as houses all through town have transformed into twinkling gingerbread cottages and sparkling ice palaces.

The Orcutt Pioneer would like to thank our readers who submitted addresses of neighbors, family members, and friends for the 7th Annual Orcutt Fa La La Awards. We only had room for seven award winners, but we are thankful for each and every home that dons lights, decks the halls, or puffs up an inflatable. After much discussion and a few festive drives through Orcutt, our judges are pleased to share with you the 2019 Orcutt Fa La La Award Winners. Each of the winners was awarded a gift valued at or above $100 from one of our sponsors.

To get a map, log onto our Google Map by using the URL: <https://tinyurl.com/falala2019>. Then grab your loved ones, some gingerbread cookies, and some Christmas tunes, and head on out to see the 2019 Orcutt Fa La La Award Winners!

#1—4603 Via Nina—
BEST IN SHOW—“The Clark
Griswold Award of Excellence”
Award Sponsored by Wine Stone
Inn in Old Orcutt

The Holidays are about coming together and making memories, and this hashtagging holiday hangout is one you have to see. The homeowners encourage guests to get out of their cars and take a photo under their angelic arch centerpiece. Sit on the bench inside the big ornament, or stop by and see Christmas Vacation's Cousin Eddy and his trimmed up trailer—complete with septic pump—or get a shot of you and the infamous leg lamp from A Christmas Story. This interactive display is the perfect place to stop and enjoy the season with your family and friends. We know Clark Griswold would be proud.

#2—1173 Via Pinta—
ROCKIN' AROUND THE CHRISTMAS TREE

Award sponsored by Vivid Financial

As you round the corner toward this house, roll down the windows and enjoy the sounds of the season. Lights arch over the sidewalks and twinkling lights sparkle along the walkway. Look for the authentic “Santa Stops Here” orange road sign and pedestrian light next to Frosty. And beware of elves crossing the street!

#3—1229 Country Hill Road—TWINKLING TIDINGS AWARD
Award Sponsored by Cups and Crumbs

This house sparkles in the night with hundreds of lights lining the roof and twinkling snowflakes dangling from the eaves. A silver reindeer parks a scarlet sleigh beside a white wintry tree and a mailbox for Santa stands nearby.

#4— 817 Patterson Road— THE JOY AWARD
Award Sponsored by Orcutt 76

A brilliant blue roof proclaims a merry “NOEL” to all who visit this illuminated manager scene. A host of heavenly creatures attend the birth of baby Jesus, while a sign declares Jesus is the “Reason for the Season.”

Orcutt Schools Update

Rallying Around a Special Student

Dr. Debbie Blow, Superintendent, OUSD

The holiday season is about people coming together. With Christmas approaching, I would like to share with you a past example of how of how one of our schools rallied around a student who had experienced unimaginable heartbreak.

In August 2017, just days into his fourth-grade year, Pine Grove School student Daniel lost both of his parents in the course of just two days. Daniel's father murdered his ex-wife, and Daniel's mother. Daniel's father then abducted Daniel and drove to Los Angeles. Authorities located the father and son, and following a standoff, Daniel's father was shot by police. When his father died in a hospital hours later, Daniel suddenly was without both of his parents.

Words cannot do justice to the impact of these circumstances on Daniel. At the same time, life needed to continue. He was placed in the care of his mother's boyfriend, who has been Daniel's guardian ever since. And Daniel needed to get back into a routine. Two weeks after the incident with his parents, he returned to school at Pine Grove.

"We wanted to keep things as normal as possible," says Karen Hettinga, the school's longtime office manager. "We were very friendly and outgoing with him, but we didn't want to make anything different for him. We wanted Daniel to feel comfortable, engaged, and busy."

Two and a half years later, Daniel is thriving in sixth grade at Pine Grove. His favorite subject is history. "We're learning about the Egyptian Pyramids, pharaohs, and mummies – I like that," he says. He enjoyed going to Outdoor School with his class this fall. "I did the hikes, but I think I liked archery the best," he recalls. He is well liked by peers. "I have lots of friends – everyone's nice to me," he says.

Around campus, the soon-to-be 13-year-old (his birthday is January 21) is like most other kids. His favorite hot lunch is pizza. He loves to play wall ball and four square at recess. And in conversation, he laughs as he talks about his "craziness" and uses "hyper" as a synonym for being excited.

But unlike most other kids Daniel still grapples with the tragedy of 2017. Asked about how his school life has gone since then, he expresses gratitude for the support he has received from his school, especially his teachers: Ron Maderas in fourth grade, Rebecca Belanger and Liz Zimmerman in fifth grade, and Roberta Hough, Caline Pugh, and Devin Riezebos this year. "The teachers here are so good, and they always have been here to help me," says Daniel. "They make the school like a family to me."

Pine Grove, in turn, loves being there for this special young man.

"Daniel has a contagious smile," says Principal Leslie Wagonseller. "Each day he greets me with some kind of joke about how much I'm selling wagons for. And every day I give him some smart remark that makes him laugh. It really is a pleasure to know him."

Wagonseller was so inspired by Daniel that she nominated him for a regional "Every Student Succeeding" award given through her professional organization, the Association of California School Administrators. Her application narrative detailed how the Pine Grove community served as "a warm blanket on a cold night" for Daniel. She also made a summary comment with which everyone who knows Daniel would agree:

"Daniel brightens the day for those around him. He is a remarkable source of positivity and kindness. He should be recognized as an example of 'shining from within' even in the face of life-altering events."

We all wish Daniel the best as he completes sixth grade and progresses toward junior high school. Here's acknowledging him for traveling a tough road in a way that inspires us all, and here's thanking the people of Pine Grove School for their work in supporting him. This story represents the best about our school system.

On behalf of the Orcutt Union School District, I would like to wish all of you the happiest of holiday seasons.
