Expanded Menus, New Names, Same Hospitality at Two Orcutt Hot Spots

805 Eats, formerly known as Patricios Pizza, located at 165 S. Broadway.

Two popular Orcutt eateries have made significant changes over the past few months. Rooney's Irish Pub—now Blast 825 Brewery—and Patricio's Pizzeria—now 805 Eats—have new menu items, though they continue to offer some of their best hits.

The pub, which was a local favorite since it opened almost eight years ago, began converting to Blast 825 in May, though changes will continue rolling out through the next 90 days. "It's gonna be bigger and better but we won't manage anymore and won't be there as often," announced Rooney's owner Tim Rooney via social media, adding that it will include "some of our old favorites, some of their bests and some brand new."

Blast 825, which has a few other locations including one in San Luis Obispo, will feature 50 self-serve beer and wine taps in its full bar. Wood-fired pizza and other dishes will be on the menu, complemented by a family-friendly atmosphere, live music and a beer garden. The current patio will be expanded for the garden.

For the last couple of years, the Rooneys have been working on turning the pub into Blast 825 with Milano Restaurants International. Milano operates Me-N-Ed's Pizzeria and Blast 825 as well as several other restaurants that do not have locations on the Central Coast. Milano is also partnered with Figueroa Mountain Brewing Company.

"We need to earn back our old customers and gather new ones," the Rooneys explained.

An official grand opening for Blast 825 is set for Labor Day weekend — the first weekend in September — when the remodeling is scheduled to be complete.

Patricio's was in business for more than 30 years. Under the new name 805 Eats, the restaurant continues to serve pizza with new menu items and 10 different taps.

"We're rebranding with new dishes, a fresh look and the same great pizza, more flavors of wings and hot and cold sandwiches," a representative said on the restaurant's Facebook page.

Rooney's Irish Pub, now known as Blast 825, located at 241 S. Broadway.

Orcutt's Top Seniors Share Plans for the Future

The 2017-2018 school year has come to a close and brought with it another class of graduating seniors. The Pioneer caught up with the valedictorian at each Orcutt high school - Orcutt Academy, Ernest Righetti, and Saint Joseph - to learn about their high school experience and find out what they plan to do next.

Chloe Sheley was this year's valedictorian at Orcutt Academy High School. Her weighted GPA this year was 4.62. She shared, "Orcutt Academy has prepared me for college in the sense that I've learned a lot about time management and how to deal with a large workload." On top of academics, Sheley was involved in California Scholarship Federation, National Honors Society, and co-founded the debate club this year. Sheley

plans to study accounting and is going to stay in town to take advantage of the Hancock Promise before transferring to a four-year university.

Joon Chang is the 2018 Ernest Righetti High School valedictorian. He finished the year with a weighted GPA of 5.0. During his time in high school, Chang focused on education and community service by being a leader in the Interact Club, Key Club, California

Joon Chang, RHS

Scholarship Federation, and Future Business Leaders of America Club. He also spent time volunteering at the hospital and being involved at his church. On his high school experience, he noted, "[High school] has prepared me to expect the unexpected, try my hardest, and be thankful for everything." Chang plans to study mechanical engineering at UCLA in hopes of eventually working in the automotive or aerospace industries.

Sara Cossa was the valedictorian at Saint Joseph High School this year. Her weighted

Sara Cossa, SJHS

GPA was 4.5. Throughout high school, Cossa played four years of varsity golf, was involved in California Scholarship Federation, and started a baking club her senior year. Outside of school, she volunteered as a peer leader in the Confirmation at St. Louis de Montfort Church. Commenting on her time in high school, she said, "I was able to find classes that required me to put in time and effort- preparing me for a future of hard work." Cossa will be attending Santa Clara University this coming fall to study political science.

Congratulations to all graduating seniors from Orcutt!

Orcutt Community Theater Finishes Inaugural Season with Murder at Café Noir

Do you want mystery?
Do you want intrigue?
Do you want dinner?
The Orcutt Community Theater's got you covered! In the final performance of their inaugural season, Murder at Café Noir is coming to Moxie Café and you're invited to join in the fun.

On the hunt for a runaway, private investigator Rick Archer finds himself in Tobago Cay where a body has just washed up on the beach. To solve the case, he must investigate the sleazy regulars of the island's only nightclub, Café Noir. Will he be able to discover the culprit before time runs out? You'll have to get in on the action to find out.

While the Orcutt Community Theater has tackled comedy, drama, and musicals, this murder mystery dinner will be a first for the company. As Dixie Arthur explains, "This is different... because it is interactive with the audience and the plot movement is driven entirely by their decisions. And the set is the Moxie Café, not a theater, where the characters [can] interact closely and improvisationally with the patrons."

Director Meredith Brough adds, "The cast we are working with is amazing and several have performed in murder mysteries before and bring wonderful new ideas to the show."

Since Murder at Café Noir is a comic tribute to the Humphrey Bogart movies of the 1940s, the props and costumes will all be in shades of black, white, and gray and patrons are encouraged to dress in the same color palette or in their best 1940s duds.

To add one more layer to the theme, Moxie's Justin Crabtree has created a special menu that evokes the French Caribbean island setting and will include salads, fruit skewers, Pollo Carnival, Caribbean Spice Salmon, Baked Gruyere Polenta, and Banana Cheesecake as well as a no-host bar with beer and wine all accompanied by period music on piano and a "mysterious sultry chanteuse."

This unique catered dinner theater may mark the end of the season for the Orcutt Community Theater, but they're already gearing up for the next.

"Our first season was a success," says Arthur. "We were able to... attract talented casts and crews and interested audiences. We are very excited about our second, very ambitious season."

Season 2 will feature productions of Into the Woods, Sleuth, The Elephant Man, and Vintage Hitchcock - A Live Radio Play. Into the Woods will premier in September and auditions for Sleuth will be held in October.

Tickets for Murder at Café Noir are $65 and can be purchased at the door or by visiting brownpapertickets.com. Shows run Saturday, July 21st, Sunday, July 22nd, Saturday, July 28th, and Sunday, July 29th. For more information call (805) 723-0251 or (805) 937-3738.

Boots Made for Walkin? Join Beach Boardwalkers for “Fun, Fitness & Friendship”

Like a phoenix rising from the ashes of its former self, the Central Coast Beach Boardwalkers is bringing Volksmarching back to the Central Coast. Created in Germany to encourage groups to enjoy non-competitive fitness events, Volksmarching (German for People's Walks) gives participants incentives and opportunities to get outside and enjoy nature while staying fit at the same time.

“The primary purpose is to encourage walking for the health of it, and encourage people to get out and get exercise — and walk,” shared club president Ty Fredriks. “It doesn't have to be a big thing like marathons or race walking. You just walk at your own pace. It's a great way to see different areas.”

With thirteen year-round events already mapped out from previous Volksmarching clubs, the Beach Boardwalkers have 5K (3.1 mile) and 10K (6.2 mile) walks ready to go from Morro Bay all the way to Ventura that anyone can enjoy on their own schedule. The club will also feature a monthly group walk where anyone can come out and join like-minded folks for a few hours of fun, fitness, and friendship.

“When we travel, Ty and I can almost always find a Volksmarch that showcases local highlights, historic neighborhoods, or beautiful scenery,” shares Ginger Fredriks, CCBB Secretary. “Each club shares fun facts about their area, so we get to learn and exercise at the same time. Stamping our walking books gives us an incentive to get out and enjoy the world around us, and stay fit at the same time!”

The Central Coast Beach Boardwalkers meet at Giovanni's Pizza in Orcutt (next to Albertson's) on the fourth Thursday of each month from 6:30-8:00 pm. Anyone interested in joining the CCBB is invited to meet Thursday, June 28th for the inaugural club meeting, and join the first group walk on Saturday, June 30th. Details can be found at www.beachboardwalkers.org, or call club president Ty Fredriks at 805-714-1552.

Summer time is upon us and the days are becoming warmer. This time of year we think of vacations, hosting parties or just hanging out with family at the beach and lake. Painting your home is probably not at the top of your list. As I've said in the past, painting is the most cost effective project you can do to your home. With fresh paint, you can change the complexion of your home 180 degrees. Add a bold front door color to set off your new look. If you don't have the time to paint your home or business, there are many local contractors in this area to choose from. Call us for advice, it's always free.

Orcutt History

Eureka! Old Maud's Gusher Puts Orcutt on the Map

Not long after Orcutt was established, an event occurred that marked an era of rapid advancement for the oil industry in general and the Union Oil Company and the town of Orcutt in particular. On December 2, 1904, Hartnell No.1, the first producing well on Hartnell property, came in with such force that it became one of the great wonders of California. The tremendous excitement that Old Maud, as the well was named, created is captured in a description of the event by Jack Reed, a member of the crew that brought the gusher in:

"Then with a roar, a column of oil and gas shoots up through the rid floor to a height of 150 feet. Oil begins pouring down the gullies and creek beds. We have the biggest producer the world. We can't control it, what with 12,000 barrels of oil everyday. We don't even have tanks or pipelines big enough to handle the flow, so we scrape up a series of earth dams. Pools of crude collect for miles below as the flow continues day after day for three months."

Frank Hill, who was superintendent on the job and later Director of Production for Union Oil, added that:

"By mistake, one of the workmen closed a valve ... This completely shuts in the well which is under great gas pressure. This starts the oil flowing through the formations, and for hundreds of yards around every gopher hole begins to spout oil. The surrounding of fields are full of miniature geysers of oil."

Fortunately, the valve was reopened and the oil started gushing through the casing.

The well produced one million its first 100 days. It flowed for over two years and yielded nearly three million barrels before being put on the pump. Thereafter, Old Maud produced 250 barrels a day until 1918, when the casing collapsed and the well was shut-in. The well was reopened in 1943 to help meet the great wartime demand for oil and, at that time, it produced 175 barrels a day. Old Maud is now abandoned, a relic located in the quiet canyon amidst other remains of turn-of-the-century oil operations. The canyon itself shows no apparent signs of the flood of crude that once inundated it, and much of the land that was covered with oil is now cattle grazed.

Old Maud's spectacular behavior not only opened up the Santa Maria Oil Field to intensive development, it precipitated a boom in oil stocks. It gave financial backers confidence in oil drilling as a profitable and legitimate industry, and gave Union Oil status as a major oil company. Old Maud further accelerated Orcutt's development. For the next few years the town grew rapidly. Even when the Cat Canyon oil fields were discovered in 1909 and some oil workers and operations were drawn to the eastern part of the Santa Maria Valley, the town of Orcutt did not cease to grow. Its pace of development slowed, but improvements were still made.

Orcutt Schools Update

Retirees Lived up to ‘Kids Come First’ Motto

Dr. Debbie Blow, Superintendent, OUSD

They prepared meals, drove school buses, ran offices, tutored students. They taught your children, your grandchildren, maybe even you. They were mainstays of their schools and departments for decades.

As the 2017-2018 school year concluded, we in the Orcutt Union School District were quite sad to have 29 teachers and Classified employees leave us for retirement. With the experience, knowledge, and wisdom that they brought to their work, our retirees made immeasurable contributions to students over the years.

Needless to say, we all can be thankful for our retirees’ service. And our retirees, in turn, also have similar feelings of gratitude.

“The district gave me opportunities not just to teach the children, but to grow as a teacher,” says 28-year classroom veteran Jim Hoffman, who taught sixth grade at May Grisham School and then Pine Grove School. “I’m thankful for that.”

“I feel very fortunate to have been able to work with the kids I had,” says Dave Rapson, a Special Education teacher who worked at multiple sites in the district before finishing at Orcutt Junior High School. “I love my kids – they are my heroes. I love teaching, and a big part of me will miss it.”

“I’m going to have to figure out how not to be an Orcutt employee,” says Lois Weddle after 30 years with the district, mostly as office manager of Joe Nightingale School and then administrative assistant for our Educational Services Department. “I’m thankful for the good memories I have – I could write a book telling about the cute things kids have done and said.”

Following is a complete list of our retirees, their years of service, and their most recent assignment:

Steve Blackie, 1989-2018, Orcutt Academy High School Biology teacher
Dawn Ann Burch, 1997-2018, Orcutt Junior High School English/Social Science teacher
Mary Davis, 1986-2018, Lakeview and Orcutt Junior High Schools Home Economics teacher
Susan Degner, 2001-2018, Orcutt Academy Independent Study K/1/2 teacher
Nicki Draper, 2002-2018, senior payroll technician
